

WALL STREET JOURNAL RADIO NETWORK ADDS KTLK-AM LOS ANGELES AS LATEST AFFILIATE FOR “THE DAILY WRAP”

NEW YORK (May 3, 2011) – The Wall Street Journal Radio Network announced today the addition of KTLK-AM Los Angeles to its affiliate lineup for its new evening talk and news show, “The Daily Wrap with Michael Castner.”

“KTLK is happy to welcome The Wall Street Journal’s The Daily Wrap to afternoon drive,” said KTLK program director Robin Bertolucci. “We look forward to a great partnership.”

Additional affiliates for the new show include KLIF-AM Dallas, WRNO-FM New Orleans, WREC-AM Memphis; WPLZ-FM Chattanooga, WJBO-AM Baton Rouge and KTBB-FM Tyler, Texas. The Daily Wrap is available live each weekday from 6- 9 p.m. ET.

“We are very excited to have added The Daily Wrap to our lineup,” said Jim Graci, program director for KLIF-AM in Dallas. “It’s a brand new show from a trusted source. The Wall Street Journal produces quality programming. We’re proud to bring Michael’s fresh insights and candid opinions mixed with the Journal’s world-class reporting to Dallas listeners.”

Jim Fisher, program director for WRNO-FM, where Mr. Castner most recently hosted morning drive time, said “Michael has a tremendous following here in New Orleans, and we are thrilled that he’ll continue to be an important part of the Rush Radio 99.5FM WRNO line-up.”

Westwood One, long-time business partner with The Wall Street Journal Radio Network, sells the advertising for The Daily Wrap.
